Mayor Myron Dyck noted that the Town’s Chief Administrative Officer (CAO) and Engineer had attended a (Sustainable Cities) conference last week in New Brunswick. The CAO shared that his highlight of this trip was a tour of the 12 Neighbors Development; a social housing/tiny homes community with approximately 90 tiny homes. Additionally, the CAO commented that most of the funding came from a single donor and that he got the opportunity to meet the Minister of Housing for Canada (Mr. Nathaniel Erskine-Smith).

Mayor Dyck advised that the media should contact Staff Sgt. Ron Poirier directly for any updates on the opening of the RCMP office, and that the RCMP have been interviewing for their reception position. Mayor Dyck mentioned that he had been in touch with the hotel owner confirming that they still want to build in Niverville. He also advised about a recent meeting with the Minister of Infrastructure (Ms. Lisa Naylor) and Minister of Municipal Affairs (Mr. Glen Simard), where they had the opportunity to discuss various Town matters and provide updates. Mayor Dyck noted that the Ladies’ National Volleyball Championships have been awarded to Niverville for 2026, with the Men’s Championships being hosted here during the first week in March 2025.
